DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group II, Species A in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged. It is noted that applicant's reply did not include a listing of claims readable on the elected species. The examiner has determined that claims 19-21 and 27-33 are readable on the elected species.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 27, "the cutting edge" lacks positive antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 19 and 27-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ogletree (US 2,109,303).

Regarding claims 19 and 27, Ogletree discloses all the recited elements of the invention including:

- a) a tool body (5);
- b) a cavity extending into the tool body (Figure 3);
- c) a cutting blade (9);
- d) a pair of opposing walls (a,c) in the cavity located generally parallel with the cutting blade wherein the opposing walls are equidistant from the cutting blade.

Regarding claims 28-33, Ogletree discloses all the recited elements of the invention including:

- e) a pair of walls (a,c);
- f) a cutting edge (10) located between and parallel with the walls;
- g) the walls (a,c) are equidistant from the cutting edge and located in planes parallel with one another (Figure 4);
- h) a pair of opposing retaining walls (b,d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ogletree (US 2,109,303).

Ogletree discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the tool body made of plastic. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the body made of plastic, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Jones, Smith, and Evens et al. are cited to show related devices.
